DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1, 2, 3, 6, 10 are indefinite in the use of the various ratios. Each ratio should have a semi-colon after it to make clear what is to what. In addition, it is not clear whether the ratios are intended to be "cultured dextrose to erythorbic acid, then erythorbic acid to ascorbic acid, then ascorbic acid to quercetin", and on. The abstract should also be corrected as above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Selleck (US 2002/0054950 A1).

Selleck '4950 discloses a composition which is used to preserve fruits and vegetables, in particularly avocado, by spraying avocado with a solution of a flavonoid, which can be quercetin and ascorbic acid, which would therefore be an acidified solution of quercetin, as in claim 14 (abstract and paragraphs [0014] and [0019]). The composition can contain stabilizing amounts of quercetin, which is considered to be a flavonoid in the amount of 25 mgs as in claim 16 (paragraphs [0020] and [0045]). The composition is stabilized using amounts of bioflavonoids (i. e. quercetin) within the claimed range [0045].

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claim 15 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
